OFFICE ACTION

The P.R. Trademark Office (the "PRTO") has reviewed its records and has determined that there are no similar or pending marks that would bar registration of this mark under the P.R. Trademark Act. However, in order to proceed with the examination of the mark, the PRTO requires the Applicant to amend the application as follows:

Description of Goods is Overly Broad:

Rule 20 of the Trademark Registry Procedure Code of the Department of State for The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (hereinafter, the Rules) provides that applications for registration of trademarks must include a list of the goods or services in relation to which a Trademark registration is desired.

An application of a mark must specify the goods or services on or in connection with which the Applicant uses, the mark in commerce. The identification should set forth common names, using terminology that is generally understood. The identification of goods or services must be specific, definite, clear, accurate, and concise. Applicant is advised to examine the International Classification of Goods and Services established under the Nice Agreement, Tenth Edition, to describe the products or services that are used commercially in Puerto Rico. See <http://www.wipo.int/classifications/nice/es/>.

Note that Rule 33 of the Rules provides that the applicant may amend his application during the review of the application, when required by the Examining Attorney or other official reasons. The applicant may amend his application to clarify or limit, but not to extend the identification of goods or services. Given the above, the Examining Attorney requires that the applicant modify and amend its application for renewal as indicated in this Office Action or otherwise show cause why this amendment is not necessary.

In light of the aforementioned, the Examiner requires the Applicant to modify and/or amend the application for registration as provided herein or, otherwise, show cause why such modification is not required.

According to Rule 36 of Puerto Rico's Trademark Rules of Procedure amendments filed must be specified in a written and signed statement by the Applicant or its Representative. Neither Applicant nor its Representative shall rewrite, alter, modify, erase or include words in a pending application. However, the Puerto Rico Trademark Office (PRTO) may amend the said application with the Applicant's consent.

According to Rule 27 of Puerto Rico's Trademark Rules of Procedure, if the PRTO does not receive a response to the abovementioned remarks within ninety (90) days, the Application shall be considered abandoned.

Note: Please refer to the name of the Examining Attorney. The office action response shall be filed online at <https://prtmfiling.f1hst.com/> using the transaction office action response. The cost for the said filing is $15.00. If you have any questions via email to jpagan@estado.pr.gov

Cordially,

Julio J. Pagán Pérez
Examining Attorney
Puerto Rico Trademark Office
